C. R. Johnson of my Co, referred to me, in your is now before, and I am glad to see that these Officers are disposed to return Private Johnson to duty in his Company if you insist upon it. I Sir, insist upon it, do your utmost to get him back. I have labored months to get Private Johnson back into Camp, and finally succeeded but only to keep him three weeks after an absence of one year. I insist upon his return for a great many reasons, to mention one. His place can be easily supplied by a Militia man, as was the way. Genl's intention in his general Order, requiring those in the regular service to return to duty in their Companies and their places to be filled from the Militia. I would enumerate some of the reasons for his return, but they have been so often shown, and you are so familiar with them that I do not deem it necessary to do so. I insist upon his return strongly.

that Capt Wallis has been very thoroughly diligent in keeping up his Co. and has had his Co. so depleted that it has been a source

He - I - you and G. M. Malmgren are anxious to place very able & tried man in the field - E. R. Johnson is an able & tried man and I respectfully but earnestly insist upon his return to his Co. Believing Capt Gaines could supply his place with Capt Johnson in the service there by retaining him.

to the remarks on the same, you will perceive that this Captain certifies that "He is entitled to draw

Capt. E. J. Turner

Sir:

The Undersigned, Drum Major in the 20th Texas Infantry, most respectfully begs leave to represent to the Major Genl. Comd'g, that before ^{the} breaking out of the present war between the Confederate States & the United States, he was in the Service of the U. S. under Genl. Twiggs, and occupied the Position of Field Drum Major; that at the Commencement of hostilities, he enlisted in the Service of the Confederacy, thereby losing his position, and sacrificing a pension, which the U. S. Government had allowed him for his services and wounds received in the Mexican War. In consideration of the premises, he most respectfully petitions the Maj. Genl. Comd'g that he be restored to a like position, as Field Drum Major, in the Confederate Service.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Yours ob't Serv't,

Sir I would respectfully call your attention, to the Detail of private J. M. Leatherwood of my company who was detailed by Special Order No. 218 District of Texas New Mexico. He is reported to Capt Taylor of Clothing & Accoutrements ~~and~~ ^{as} a shoemaker private Leatherwood ~~is~~ ^{is} occupied is entirely on the assumption that he is a farmer & I am well satisfied of the fact that he is so. A shoemaker ~~now~~ ^{knows} nothing about it but was prompted to send the detail to get rid of the duties of a detail private Leatherwood is one among the stoutest & kindest soldiers of my command & has always discharged his duties as such & is prompted to send the above detail to evade such duties I would therefore respectfully ask that he be ordered back to his command for duty.

Chief of Bureau Details

Sir I desire to report to you that some of my men are absent on detail who I think should be ordered back to duty -

H. H. A. Lindermann was mustered into my Co. on the 29th July 1862 & detailed by me with the consent of Col. Helmore Comdg. Post at Camp Groce to report R. (Hubby) Hempstead, for the purpose of repairing the guns of my Co. When the Regt was ordered to Va. Oct. last, I ordered Lindermann to camp, but he refused to come - I have reported this fact to Head Quarters of the district & obtained an order from Gen. Scurry for him to return - I forwarded the order to Hempstead by the Prov.
Sergeant of our Regt who was taken sick while there and failed to execute the order - I have no doubt that false representations have been made to the Maj. Genl Comdg. who on the 6th March last commanded him to continue with Hubby - I will refer you to Capt Winter A. Q. M. at Hempstead who will certify on oath that Hubby has had no Gov contract - for more than a year by false representations retained Lindermann on private speculation. Such things ought not to be done.

R. R. Burns another private through the influence representations of friends in the country procured a detail to report as Tanner to Capt Wharton. When the order was read to him he laughed at the idea & remarked he had never seen a piece of leather tanner or something to that effect - Any negro or ordinary Cafecity can perform the same labor he is Headquarters, 20th Regt Tex. Infantry Galveston, Feb'y 9, 1864.

Capt. W. M. Mason,

A. A. G. Genl.

Captain:

On the 13th June, 1863, by an Order from the Pro. Mar. General's Office, 2^d Lieut.
H. E. Lockett of Co. C, 20th Tex. Inf. was assigned to duty as Pro. Mar. of Houston, his Company being at that time stationed in Houston. His Co. is now, & has been for some time stationed at Pelican Spit, where his services are very much needed; there being such a scarcity of reliable & efficient Officers at that important Post, that I am commended by orders from Col. Rainey, to detach two Lieutenants from their Companies stationed in the City, & send them over to Pelican Spit, to act as Officers of the Guard.

On the 15th ult. I addressed a communication to Capt. E. P. Turner, A. A. G. stating these facts, & requesting that Lieut. Lockett be returned to his Company. This communication was referred by him to Maj. Hyllsted. Pro. Mar.
Genl., who returned it with the remark, "that at the time of the arrest of the political prisoners, Peck, Baldwin & Zwick, the Genl Com'dy desired that Lieut. H. E. Lockett should remain as Pro. Mar. of Houston," and with the further remark, that Lieut. Lockett was "not fit for field service," & would not be for several months to come. It was then returned to me by Capt. Turner, & my attention invited to the endorsement of Maj. Hyllsted. Whether this disposition of my memorial was made by order of the Maj Genl Com'dy, I do not know. But I presume it was not. Capt. Turner being an experienced & efficient A. A. Gent. knows that when he writes by Gen'l Magruder's order, it should be so stated.

His endorsements do not state that they were made by Gen'l Magruder's order. I am therefore led to infer that my communication was never laid before the Major Gen'l Comd'g.

Whilst Lieut. Lockett was with me I considered him one of the most healthy officers of my command; but if he is really not fit for field service, & not likely soon to be, on account of a chronic disease, as stated by Maj.
Agallied, it seems to me that the good of the service requires that he be taken entirely from the line, by transfer or otherwise, & that his place in the Company be filled by the election of another Lieutenant. The Company to which he belongs is a large one, numbering 110 enlisted men, & ought to have the full quota of Comd'g officers with it.

I dislike to trouble Capt. Turner with this matter again, who may have had good reasons not known to me, for not submitting it to the Maj. Gen'l Comd'g; I therefore present it to him through you, & respectfully request his favorable consideration.

I remain, Sir, your very Respectfully,
H. M. Ellison
